

Recommendation regarding Lasse Yori Jacobsen

To whom it may concern,

I have had the pleasure of knowing Lasse Yori Jacobsen for the past three semesters, initially as a student and later as a teaching assistant in the X-Tech Entrepreneurship course, 38103.

Lasse has been an active member of the team of teaching assistants, who, in addition to their academic responsibilities, contribute to a strong sense of camaraderie and organize social gatherings within the team.

Lasse willingly goes above and beyond, and in addition to his role as a teaching assistant, has assisted with other activities at the center.

He approaches students and their challenges, both technical and group-related, with enthusiasm and works diligently to create solutions, ensuring that everyone performs to the best of their ability.

Lasse is solution-oriented and has demonstrated his ability to creatively solve even complex problems through his work with student startups in course 38103. He has been the primary teaching assistant for 15 student startups during his time in this role.

I hereby give Lasse my warmest recommendation.
